BISCHOFF PROUDLY ANNOUNCES THE ARRIVAL OF THE 2005 INDIANA TRAVEL GUIDES

INDIANAPOLIS -- State Rep. Bob Bischoff (D-Lawrenceburg) would like to announce that the 2005 Indiana Travel Guides, Enjoy Indiana Maps, Festival Guides, Play Packs, and the new Outdoor Recreation Guide are available through his office.

All of these guides, which are published annually by the Indiana Office of Tourism and Film Development, are free to everyone. The guides include information on the wide variety of activities available in Indiana: fishing, biking, camping, festivals, performing arts events, and more.

Discounts on travel and recreational activities are also available with the 2005 guides.

"Indiana is a great state with something to offer for everyone," said Bischoff. "These 2005 travel guides will help direct Hoosiers and out of state tourists to the activities they are looking for."

It is projected that $6.7 billion will be spent on tourism and sightseeing in Indiana this year alone, with 58 million travelers enjoying the beautiful scenery and hospitality this state has to offer.

For those of Rep. Bischoff's constituents who are interested in receiving the 2005 Indiana Travel Guides, call 1-800-382-9842 (toll-free in Indiana); write to Rep. Bob Bischoff, Indiana House of Representatives, 200 W. Washington St., Indianapolis, IN 46204; or request these publications via his Web site at www.in.gov/h68/
